Finding out about support near you

You can find out what support there is near you by looking at the Local Offer. This is the name of a web page or written information, like a leaflet. It is written by your local authority, which might be called 'the council'.

The Local Offer is for:

- Disabled children and young people
- Children and young people with special educational needs. Special educational needs are when you need extra help to learn things.
- Families of those children and young people

The Local Offer must give you information about the support that you should be able to get in your area.

The Local Offer must have information about:

- Schools, colleges or training
- Special health support
- Hobbies or fun activities
- Support for becoming an adult
- Transport

The local authority must ask you what it should put in the Local Offer. You can tell your local authority what you think about it. They must show everyone what people have said and explain how they are going to make it better.

To find the Local Offer, go to:

If you cannot get on the website then the council should give you written information, like a leaflet.

To find out more about the Local Offer, go to:

www.youtube.com/user/WatchCDC

Information, Advice and Support Services can help you to find your Local Offer and explain what it says. They can also help you to tell your local authority what you think about the Local Offer.

Ask one of our members of staff for support.

Where can I get more information?

You can get more information in easy read from the Department for Education and Mencap booklets:
