Single Point of Access for Bereavement Support is: bereavementsupport@northlincs.gov.uk

You might want to talk to someone at your school or college.

Every school in North Lincolnshire has a Special Educational Needs Coordinator, a Mental Health Champion, staff who give pastoral support, and access to an Educational Psychologist, OR if you are in a secondary school - a counsellor from the Youth Information and Counselling Unit (YICU), who support young people who have been bereaved.

You can contact them on:
Educational Psychology:
nledpsychology@northlincs.gov.uk

Youth Information and Counselling Unit (YICU):
projects@northlincs.gov.uk
OR Tel 01724 296679

You might want to talk to someone outside of school.

You can visit the nearest Children Centre to you, talk to your youth worker, seek out someone at your place of faith, or you can text, email or get in touch with an organisation.

The Mix:

www.themix.org.uk (provides free, confidential support for young people under 25 via online, social and mobile).

Winstons Wish:

winstonswish.org

Website for professionals, children, young people and families (online support at this time).

Shout:

info@giveusashout.org OR Text 85258 in crisis' (Shout is new way people who are trained, can message you - this will be nationwide).

Grief Encounter:

www.griefencounter.org.uk OR Tel 0808 802 0111 (National service providing support to bereaved children and teenagers).

You might want more help over time and would like to see someone who is a counsellor or join a group for children and young people who were bereaved.
